Deep Dramatic Blue

Loxley allows you to make colour the hero with it's simple, symmetrical shape and minimalist style. Blue kitchens are right on-trend for 2019, making Serica Marine Blue perfect for those looking to make a bold statement. Here we've combined Serica Marine Blue with Serica Light Grey to create a strong contrast allowing for flow throughout this open plan living space.

Soft Subtle Shades

Neutral colours create a calming, nurturing palette and help to make your room feel more comfortable and inviting. Loxley is available in a range of soft Serica tones to allow you to create a serene look and feel.

This softer interpretation of a classic country style shaker kitchen channels a sense of quiet elegance. Subtle in warmth with a grey undertone, Serica Taupe Grey lends itself perfectly to a harmonious colour scheme. A natural alternative to White, it pairs well with light oak and marble finishes. A touch of Serica Pebble on the island unit helps break up the space and add dimension to the overall look.

TIMELESS COUNTRY -CHIC WITH A MODERN TWIST

Traditional Elegance

Serica Pebble is a neutral grey with subtle green undertones that pairs well with a wide variety of colour variations. However it works equally as well in it's own right. It's rustic hue combined with Serica's super smooth matt finish make this Loxley Kitchen a luxurious space fit for any grand country residence.

Too much heavy colour can make a room feel smaller, so keeping the floor and walls neutral helps create balance. This Loxley is complemented by chrome accessories which also help to reflect light around the space.

Serica White Grey poses an alternative style gently blending neutral hues together filling the space with a sense of calm and purity. It can lighten the mood of any room with its subtle, yet richly visible, effect.

SILKY SMOOTH AND ALWAYS INVITING

Sometimes a subtle variation can make a remarkable impact. Serica Stone Grey creates a perfect balance to the cool hue of Serica Light Grey. Pared-back spaces and quiet colour accents soothe the eyes and invite the sense of touch.

Natural Tones

Serica Kashmir creates sophisticated yet understated interior spaces. This scheme composes warm, soft blushes with refreshing whites and hints of natural wood texture for a quietly refined look. As in nature, earthy stone and sand colours blend harmoniously, hence why this pairing of Serica Kashmir and Serica Stone Grey works so well.

For a more paired back, organic look we've combined crisp light hues with clean lines and open storage. This minimal kitchen concept uses its space wisely to create a light and rejuvenating atmosphere. Soft, natural green walls add a fresh note to the saturated tones of Serica White Grey and Serica Dust Grey. This delicate blend of nurturing tones with light wood textures ignite the senses and revive the spirit.

Shades of Grey

Grey is the new white, with more and more homeowners opting to go grey with their kitchen cabinets. A continuous trend for 2019, grey is a perfect choice for those wishing to achieve a high end designer look.

Serica Dust Grey is the perfect mid-grey to pair with light timber textures. The warm grey hues and soft white tones make this Loxley kitchen a calming yet stylish environment for entertaining. Serica Light Grey and Serica Dust Grey work beautifully together, combine the two shades to create a real sense of depth throughout your entire living space.
